on schedule time.

The fire broke out last Wednesday morning about three o'clock. Mis-Mary Hall was sleeping up stairs and was aroused by the smoke's strangling her. Capt. Paschall was absent at the time, down at old man Parrish's on whose estate he is administrator, his son too was absent. It was a life struggle. Mrs. Paschal ran to her two chil-pren who were fast as the flame and and sparks were striking the bed, and at the risk other life bore them out. The fire first caught in a west corner room of the house where there had been no fire since the day it snowed, six days before. There was a pane out of a window to this room and through it the fiae was thrown to a pile of shavings inside. The cribs were not burnt. Nothing was saved from the house but one bed, and Henry Russell, a faithful colored servant Mrs. Pacchal and the old negro got out two pieces of meat and a sack of meal from the smoke house, Mrs. Paschal, herself breaking the house open. It was a sad sight to greet the bewildered father on his return, his little boys wrapped up in clothes borrowed from Frank Paschal, and his wife nearly frantic at the situation. We hear-but trust it is not so-that during the burning Mr. Paschal's daughter ran to a gentleman seen coolly looking on and begged him to come to their assistance, but he put both bands in his pockets and walked indifferently off, Surely there is no such stock as that native to this country. The loss is about two thousand dollars Capt. Paschal moved his family into a house not 18 feet square with his son, they are putting up another house. Waynick and other neighbors are nobly helping. They have got the wall and the rafters about up.

Misrepresenting the South. Baltimore Sun. The New York Herald on Tuesday took the South to task for the alleged took the South to task for the alleged crime of not readily and heartily encouraging immigration. It says that "the sullen and smarting feeling" which naturally succeeded defeat has worn away too slowly. What the South need ed most to build it up was Northern immigration and capital. These were eager to go to the South, but were not encouraged. The charge is that incoming Northern people were met with "social ostracism, political violence and unneighborly hostillity." The South did not recognize "the obligation of hospitality" towards its late enemies. This accusation of the Herald's is an This accusation of the Herald's is an indictment which should not have been brought. It is unjust in spirit and is falsified by the record. If the Southern people can be accused of anything in this relation, they should rather be charged with an unnecessary and absurd courtship of Northern people and undue subservience to Northern opinundue subservience to Northern opinion. Not sulleaness, but an uneasy and eager desire to concilliate has been the fault, if any fault exists. What Grant said of the Southern people after his first visit to the South proves this.
The famous Philadelphia convention proved it. The coalition with the liberal republicant and the noninetic of Grant republicans and the nomination of Gree-ley proved it. The break in party lines when the last electoral vote was counted proved it. The ovations given to every public man who visite the South from North prove it. The South has been painfully conscious of the poverty, and that it is being ruined by a land surfeit. It has been eager to bring in capital, to invite emigrants among whom it might divide up its great tracts of idle land in order to insure their cultivation and improvement. It would be suicide to prevent these from coming by ill-treat-ment. Nor has the South neglected its duty of hospitality. On this point there is recent testimony that is in striking contrast with what the Herald says. The Rev. Dr. Talmage, of Brooklyn, who has just retu, ned from a lecturing tour in the South, last Sunday preached on the misrepresentations which have been persistently made against the South. There is no better proof than these afford. Dr. Talmage thinks that American politics are rotten, and it is his opinion that if half a dozen poli-ticians North and South would only consent to die, there would be no more sectional animosity. "It would only be a case for the undertaker. We would gladly fit up the catafalque and play the 'Rogue's March." Dr. Talmage said: "I found while South the most perfect proof that the bulk of the stories we get ere in the North distilled, by special correspondents, are sheer fabrications, and most persistent attempts to mis represent the real character of a large section of our people. There is no m need of governmental espionage espionage at Charleston and Savannah and the other Southern cities than there is in New York or Boston." Dr. Talmage show the folly of in agining that any of the Southern people desire a restoration of slavery. On the contrary, he says that they are all heartily glad to get rid of it. Put it to ballot in the South whether or not they would have again the system which prevailed before the war and you would get a thundering negative, The fight for slavery closed six-teen years ago, and those Northern politicians who keep the subject of-American slavery still relling, might as well try to make the Door rebellion in Rhode Island or the attempt of Aaron Burr to found an empire the test for our fall election. The whole subject of American slavery is dead and damn.d," Dr. Talmage denies and laughs at the stories of brutality to colored men and their maltreatment, and he declares that the female clerks in the retail stores on Fulton street. New York, need sympathy much more than the workers of the rice swamp or the sugar plantation. As to the tales of Northern people at the South being kukluxed or made uncomfortable, Dr. Talmage expresses his opinion of them in a Greeleyism: "It is a lie," he says: Only fools and braggarts, who would be ridden on a rail in any community, are obno.ious to the Seuth, which is very solicitous to get all the labor and immigration it can secure. "A Brooklyn man is as good as a Mobile man," says Dr. Talmage, "if he behaves himself. There is no more hospitable peo-York, need sympathy much more than self. There is no more hospitable peo-ple in the world than the people of the South." Dr. Talmage said he had a general invitation to Northern workers to go South, improve the resources of

Rev. Goo. Chainey Deciares that He is Note Christian, and That He Will Never Pray Again.

Evansville Journal. Evansville Journal.

More than usual interest was felt in the evening services of the Church of the Unity last night, in consequence of the announcement that the pastor, Rev. George Chainey, would tender his resignation on account differences of opinion among his congregation in regard to radical views on God and Christianity. The general tendency of Mr. Chainey's utterances for some time past has been such that the step taken last night was natural and inevitable, however much to be regretted.

night was natural and inevitable, however much to be regretted.

The sermon was entitled "The Head and the Heart," and it was argued that the heart or impulse had ruled too long, that when main energy from the merely sensuous condition, and found the world fall of what was to him mystery, he invested all things animate and inanimate with the same attributes which he felt belong to him. From this sprung a myriad of gods; they were seen not only in clouds and heard in the wind, but in the sun, the moon, the stare; in the brooks and mighty the stars; in the brooks and mighty waves, and in fact in everything. As man progresses in intellectual development be gradually reduced the number of Gods, till at last but one was worthined. Even this one was barbarous shiped. Even this one was barbarous-ly worstped, as demanding sacrifice to appears His wrath, and the speaker rapidly sketched the sacrifices made to conciliate Him from Jeptha down to Freeman. All these he condemned, as well as all fulsome laudations of deity, and said that when offered to the God of average conception of that power—he did not say being—they were as much idolatry as if offered stick or

At the conclusion of his sermon, in which be declared that all the answer he could make to the question "What is God?" was: "I don't know," and took other ground beyond the bounds of Christianity, and disapproved Unitar-ian societies that did not do so, he read his letter of resignation, which was even more startling than the sermon. He said that, having heard that his radicalism had been disapproved by mem-bers, and desiring to have a fair underpers, and desiring to have a fair understanding with the congregation, he offered his resignation. When he came to the church the understanding was that he should be at liberty to preach his latest thoughts. At that time he had no idea that he should completely abandon Supernatural in religious his sbandon Supernatural in religion, but his later studies and meditations had led him, to do so, and it was but right that the church should have an oppor-tunity of passing upon his fitness to re-main. If he did remain, there were conditions he should require, as the church declared itself Christian and that it labored for the Kingdom of God. that it labored for the Kingdom of God. He could not continue as the pastor of a Christian church, for, said he, "I am not a Christian;" and about the kingdom of God he expressed his disbelief in the u-ual interpretation. He had felt for some time that prayer by him was a mockery, and hence he had offered no supplications, but had instead made vocal meditations and would nev er pray again, Another thing he would never do was, to invoke a benediction, and as for the hymns sung in the church they had better sell the books to a ragman to be made over into honest white pa

The trustees whom he requested to announce a meeting to act upon the re-signation if they desired did not avail themselves of the opportunity, but whether from surprise or not was not disclosed; but after a brief conference among those present it was decided to all a meeting on Wednesday evening of members of the congregation and o friends of the church and of Mr. Chainey to take action in the premises.

The church was quite well filled, and the sermon and resignation were listened to with profound attention, and the people lingered quite a while to talk with Mr Chainey and discuss the sermon. The conservative element have mentally if not actually bidden him farewell, but there is a strong radical element in and out of the church which is expected to support him in his radi-calism, even though it does take him out or Christianity and out of Unity church.

Mr. Chainey's plans for the future are not well defined. He has received no offer to go elsewhere: his action is purely an independent one, and from the force of his convictions,

He left Mrs. Dilliard atter dinner, Saturday, and went down street, she was lying on the sofa at the time reading, and when he returned at five o'clock, she was lying on the floor proportions, the left side of her floor unconcious, the left side of her face and all of her left side paralyzed. Col Dillard had Dr. Bahnson of Winston and Dr. Jeff Scales of this place to see her. Mrs. Dillard is a lovely lady between 35 and 40, and is a daughter of Mr. Lash, who dragged one foot for many years with paralysis. The Drs. think hers a serious case, though a a host of friends are in hopes for her recovery. It is a sad blow on her clever husband.

Tragleal Death From Swamp Fires in Tyrrell County.

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., April 21 .-Information has just reached here of terrible devastation and destruction of terrible devastation and destruction of life and property in Tyrell county by the swamp fires that have been raging in that section for the past week. Houses were burned and in one case so rapid was the progress of the flames that an entire family was burned to death before they could reach a place of safety.

Mr. Zachariah Owens, a well known divine of their country. citizen of that county, was engaged in getting shingles from the swamps on the Aligator river, and was living near his business, in a house entirely surrounded by the woods. Mr. Owens left rounded by the woods. Mr. Owens left home on Saturday for the purpose of proquiring provisions. He had not gone far before he saw that the flame were approaching so rapidly that his house and family were in great danger and he retraced his steps to endeavor to save them. He reached his home and hurried his wife and three little children away, in the vain hope of reaching the away, in the vain hope of reaching the main road but the effort proved a fruitless one. The following day a party of ditzens was formed and a search was made for the bodies.—They were found altogether, in a narrow path in the swamp. The mother with her infant pressed to her breast and the father and the other two children lying near by.

"Harmony at the Centre."

Col. J. D. Cameron the able editor of the Durham Recorder mys under the above noted heading to an editorial in his last issue:

Our cotemporaries the Baleigh News and Observer begin to use the above phrase which a few years ago had a painful significance in State Journalism. We regret that either should find occasion to use it, for we at a distance see no reasonable spark of discord which could justifiably be fanned into

Yet we must be permitted to say that our usually very judicious and conser-vative friend of the Observer has allow-ed the scales of even handed justice to ed the scales of even handed justice to sway from their true balance, and falls into an inconsistency unusual with that journal. It stands wisely aloof from expression of preference for the candidate for Governor, but sees nothing wrong in pronouncing very unequivocally against one named, for Lieutenant Governor, but sees nothing wrong in pronouncing very unequivocally against one named, for Lieutenant Governor, but sees nothing wrong in pronouncing very unequivocally against one named of Lieutenant Governor, but he is part owner of a newspaper, and President of a newspaper company, and therefore must be held and opposed as a business rival. Holt to interfere in any shape or form, or exercise any influence whatever, except over its financial matters. We have no idea that he does anything of the kind now, though he might reasonably expect the luftuence of a paper in which he is pecuniarily interested. That he has not used that influence, is to his honor. We bespeak harmony, not only at the centre, but along the whole line.

Race Preindice.

Phidadelphia Record In the wild mountainous region where East Tennessee, Western North Carolina and Northern Georgia abut upon each other the colored element in the population is very slight, hardly greater in fact proportionally than it is in Delaware and some sections of Poonsylvania. And yet race prejudice seems to be stronger there than in what is known as the Black Belt of the South, in which the negroes preponderate numerically over the whites. An illustration of this occured recently in moval of a civil action from the State Court to the Circuit Court of the United States was allowed upon an affidavit that the affiants could not obtain sheir legal rights in the local judical tribunal parties were white persons, while the etitioners were colored. The appelate Court very properly reversed the action of the Court below, on the ground that the law knows no distinction among the people of the State in their divil and political rights and correspondent obligations, and none such should be recognized by those who are charged with its administration. The matter is interesting as indicating that some disabilities are of such a character that no appropriate remedy can be found for them. It is questionable whether any system can be devised whereby partiality, prejudice and pepossession can be eliminated, so that the scales of justice shall be kept always at a due even poise.

New York Herald.

He was a wee little bit of a midget, and when brought into the Essex Market Police Court by a tall "member of the force" he looked like a fern in the shadow of one of the giants of the forcest. He was charged with putting percussion caps on the track of the Crosstown railroad, and the innocent manner of his pratting out his story, criminating himself at every sentence, provoked a sympathetic smile from even the most confirmed of the court idlers. Willie Bogert was his name, and he said he lived in East Broadway, Tommy Carroll went out and "buyed a box of caps and told me to put one on the track."

Mother's Way

BY FATHER RYAN.

Oft within our little cottage As the shadows gently fall, While the sunlight touches. One sweet face upen the wall—
Do we gather close together.
And in hushed and tender tone
Ask each other's full forgiveness
For the wrong that each has done

Should you wonder why this custom At the ending of the day,

Eye and voice would quickly answer "It was once our mother's way." If our home be bright and cheery, If it holds a welcome true, Opening wide its door of greeting To the many—not the few; If we share our father's bounty

With the needy day by day,
'Tis because our hearts remember Sometimes when our hands grow weary, Or our tasks seem very long; When our burdens look to heavy And we deem the right all wrong; Then we gain anew fresh courage. And we rise to prouldly say:

"Let us do our duty bravely—

A sword belonging to Col. L. D-Starke, now of Norfolk, was found on Friday last in the woods back of the house of Wm. Thomas, in this county. During the late war this sword had been buring the late war this sword had been left with Mr. Thomas for safe keeping and he, fearing robbery, had it taken in the woods and hidden. His sons forgot the spot where they had placed it. On Friday the sword was unearthed by a son of Geo. W. Bell. Esq., who was carting woon from the woods. Young Bell had carted over it twenty-two times and would never have noticed it had he not struck it with his axe while trimming the top of a tree. The sword is of pure steel, the scabboard washed with pure gold and is in quite a good state of preservation considering it has been in the woods for about 18 years. We understand that Colonel Starke will be out this week to take the sword

Charles BeYoung the Famous Editor in Shot to Beath by J. M. Kal-lack, His Old Enemy.

SANFRANCISCO, April 24th.—Just before eight o'clock this evening Charles De Young entered the Luainers office of the Chronicle, on Ground floor, corner of Kearney and Bush streets, and stood talking with some gentlemen, leaning against the counter. Directly the door opened and J. M. Kallock and tered, and drawing a pistol, without, as far as can be learned, speaking a word, baga, firing at De Young. The as far as can be learned, speaking a word, began firing at De Young. The latter ran through the gate of the coanter to the deek inside, Kalloch thing at him as he ran. On reaching the deek him as he ran. On reaching the deek, De Young turued face to face with his opponent with a pistol in his hand, when Kallach leaning over the counter fired again, the ball striking De Young in the mouth. Kalloch then started o the door, De Young raised his pistol as if to fire, but his strength failed him for his pistol was not diacharged, and sinking backwards he fell on the floor. The by-standers ran to his assistance, but the balls had evidently placed the base of his brain and in a few minutes, he expired. As Kalloch ran out of the base of his brain and in a few midstath he expired. As Kallech ran out of the door he was seized by a ditien and at the same moment an officer came up and took him in charge and conducted him to the city prisent, where he was locked up. The news of the marder flew through the city like wind, and in a few moments the street in the vicinity. a few moments the street in the vicinity of the Chronicle office was drowded with people eager to learn the partial larg of the affair. Policemen were stationed at the door of the office to keep out the inquisitive crowd and only personal friends and reporters were admitted in the office. Mr. H. were admitted in the office. Mr. H. De Young, brother of the deceased reclined on a lounge surrounded by friends, evidently overcome by tragedy, but with dry eyes and his voice calm. He was not present at the time of the shooting, having left home after dinner a few minutes later than Charles. The deceased tay on his back on the floor, his face and breast dabited in blood, eyes closed, and face bearing a calm expression as is noticeable in the case of those dying from shot wounds. Only one wound was shot wounds. Only one wound was found on his person, although at least four shots were fired by Kalloch, two having pierced the glass door and partition of the office, and third lodging in Nashville Great Celebration. Nashville, April 24.—To-day the One-hundredth Anniversary of the foundation of the city of Nashville was first incorporated as a town in 1780, was celebrated by the most imposing street paceant ever witnessed this state. The city is full of strangers and houses ad-jacent to hotels, have been appropriated for the accommodation of guests. The entire local population are in the streets, and the city for the time being is wholy given up to the enthusiasm of the occasion. The festivities were unhered in by the salute of 100 guns from Capitol Hall at sunrise. The display of bunting was profused, and the decorations of stores and residences. dulged in with great unanimity: The principal thorough ares were spanded by arches and of evergreens and flow-ers and flags and emblems illustrating industrial and intelligent progress of the past hundred years were every-where manifest. Old landmarks about historical spots were made memorable by an encounter with the Indians in early settlement days, which were in-dicated by playcards. The centennial procession was one hour in passing a given point. The Military display was a brilliant one, the tournouts of the colored orders of various societies made a pleasing variety. New York City has 497 churches tain of 98 in the last ten years, and yell these have accommodations for not more than a fourth of the population, should all wish to go to church at once. The Episcopalians have the largest number of churches, but the Catholic churches have the largst accommoda-tions for their flocks. There is more than room enough in the New York churches, it is said, for the churchgoing people. New Yorkers do not be-long, like the Brooklyn folks, to the church-going classes, and it is a said fact that only a few of the working people, outside of the Catholic ever enter a church, except upon special occasion and Paragraps in recent English journals seem to point to the fact this we breen now making better paper in this semesting ry than is being manufactured in England. The Queen of March 18th, post? ing of the effects seen in the energy ings of Scribner's Monthly, says of the paper on which that magazine is printed, "it is of such a texture and has such as surface that the printer is able to produce the most delicate touches. As no similar paper is used in this country we must be content with merit of a different order in home work.

The London Daily News, in its field of February 26th, reviews the recensive published "Portfolio of Proof impression from Scribner's Monthly and St. Nicholas," and, referring to "the perfection to which the art of engraving on wood may be carried," adds, "a great part of the secret of success lies, we believe, in the paper on which these the specimens are printed. Its most valuable characteristic is its conness, arising from the circumstance that it is most valuable. from the circumstance that it is made of such excellent material that it can be used, as we here find it, almost unsized. It is extremely pure, and has a high surface, produced, as we have somewhere seen stated, by burnahing instead of pressure between, rederse However this may be, it is much to be regretted that English engravers do not request to this kind of paper, which as we believe, not procurable in this country, and is at all events not in practical use." from the circumstance that it is man

It is reported that the Sherman delegates cost twelve dollars per head, if this is all, then the banks may congratulate themselves.

It is proposed for the Sherman bocmers to move about the South with drums and banners. How about attracting attention to the barrel?

THE Democrats of Pamileo county will hold a Convention at Bayboro, 17th of May. The Newbernian says Fowle leads Jarvis in Pamlico.

In opposition to the political booms, we are for a farmers boom, the boom of "heg and hominy." These are our sentiments three times a day, and between meals for a rarity.

An exchange says:

When the Democrats of the State of New York forget that they belong to Mr. Tilden and no longer remember that they belong to Mr. Kelly they may make themselves of great use to the country. At present they count for a cipher.

HENRI WATTERSON of the Courier-Journal is mad with Senator Beck of Kentucky, because, forsooth, he is opposed to Tilden. We understand the whole Congressional delegation from Kentucky, opposes Mr. Tilden's nomination.

LORD BEACONSFIELD has resigned the position of Premier of England. This is the end of a political life of nearly half a century. He is a brilliant, though insincere, hollow and selfish

He was a clog upon English advancement. Mr. Gladstone now steps to the front.

The Philadelphia Times says: "If it should turn out that Grant gets just enough delegates to miss it and Blaine gets just enough to miss it there will be a surprise for somebody at the Chicago Covention. EVERY county that has held Conventions thus far, Transylvania, Henderson and Bertie have instructed their delegates to vote for Gov. Jarvis. As the 17th of June approaches it's amusing to see the official itch spread itself and the nervousness of the want-tobe-candidate.

OUR COTEMPORARY the North Caro linian continues to shout for John Sherman. It must have the Sherman craze. Regarding the nomination, the Caro-

Don't be too sanguine, we advise you to keep cool.

THE Chapel Hill Ledger says; THE Chapel Hill Ledger says;
It is rumored that the friends of Julian S. Carr will offer his name for the position of Lieutenant Governor at the appreaching State Convention. Mr. Carr is one of the most prominent Methodist laymen in the State, and the placing of his name on the State ticket would be a just recognition of the element and strength of that denomination in the body politics.

THE TOBACCONIST in speaking of the Congressional race in this District says: From the present indications it seems as if the most prominent aspirants for Congress from this District are Gen. W. R. Cox, of Raleigh, and Hon. John Manning, of Chatham. We believe General Cox is the choice of the people of this portion of the District. He has been more prominently before the people and is better known than Mr. Manning, but that gentleman has a strong old in the west, and will no doubt make a good run before the Convention. They are both gentlemen emi neutly qualified for the position and the interests of our people would be safe in the bands of either of them. That is the trouble, we've so many good men to choose from that 'tis hard to make a choice.

WHAT WE PROPOSE TO DO. THE North State, which is decidedly the ablest Radical paper in the State takes over a column in its last issue to vilify and abuse the Democratic party of North Carolina. It calls the Democratic party-"that sum of assumed virtues and intelligence, integrity and virtue." Such sarcasm as this comes with a very bad grace from the other side. We will not waste time in answering these absurd and rediculous charges. We only ask a comparison between not the State only, but county governments as will, while under Republican and Democratic administrations. We may have erred like all things human will, it is true, but never has the Democratic party been guilty of such high handed folly, and corruption as the Republican party while in control of State and county affairs. We stand to-day ready and willing to compare records with the gentlemen on the other side. It is just as natural for Republicans to spit their false and slanderous words at the Democracy as it is for ducks to swim. We have observed that republicanism as a general thing includes all the other isms. We propose during the campaign to discuss the issues between the two parties in a gentlemanly dignified manner, and not to deal in abuse and blackguardism. We desire that whenever a charge is made by the other side, to see the proof also substantiating that charge. We propose to treat our adversaries with the same respect and consideration in discussing the political situation as we demand for

REMEDISE ave Achieved the most noted suc-cess of any Medicines of Modern Times. Messrs. Weeks & Potter have never doubted the specific properties of Cuticura, cuticura Resolvent. and Cuticura Soap, for the speedy, permanent, and economical cure of Humors of the Blood, Skin and Scalp. They are however, astonished at their universal success; for it was to be expected that in the hands of some they could fail solely from spasmoule or ignoant use of them.

They are enabled to say without fear of contradiction that no remedies ever achieved in the short space of one year the number of wonderful cures performed by the Cuticura Remedies.

SALT RAHUM, Covering the Body for Jen Years, Permanently Cured.

LAW OFFICE OF CHAS. HOUGHTON, 17 Congress Street, Boston, Feb. 28, 1878. Messrs. Weeks & Potter: Gentlemen,—I feel it a duty to inform you, and through you all who are interested to know the fact, that a most disagreeable and obstinate case salt kneum or Eczema, which has been under my personal observation from its first appearance to the present time,—about ten (10) years,—cover g the greater portion of the patient's by and limbs with its peculiar irritati and itching seab, and to which all the known methods of treating such disease have en applied without benefit, has completely disappeared, leaving a clean and healthy skin, under a few days of profuse application of CUT/CURA. CUTICURA.

I can and do heartily advise all similarly afflicted to try the remedy which has been so effectual in this case.

Very truly yours,
CHAS, HOUGHTON.

Liver Complaint.

And Dyspepsia Treated by the Re solvent, Gains 5 1-2 pounds on GENTLEMEN.—I have had Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, with running sores on the side of my neck, for ten years. Doctors did no good. I have been spending for eight years and it did me no good. Everything I ate distressed me. I got reduced from 179 to 132 pounds. At last I tried the BrsoLvent snd It helped me right off, and on one bottle I gained five and one-half pounds. It is doing the business, and I am going for it strong.

JOHN H. ROY

Note.—Cuticura is admirable assisted in cases of extreme physical weakness, or when the virus of Scrofula is known to lurk in the system, by the internal ase of the Cuticura Resolvent, without doubt the most powerful blood purifier and liver stimulant in the world.

Cuticura Soap is an elegant toilet and medicinal assistant to Cuticura in the treatment of all external ailments. For chapped hands, rough saln and tan, sunburn, and the lesser skin troubles, it is indispensable; as a soap for the toilet, the nursery and bath it is the most elegant, refreshing, and healing before the public.

These great remedies succeed where all others heretofore in use fail because they possess new and original properties never before successfully combined in medicine.

The Cuticura Remedies are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists Price of Cuticura, smail boxes, 30 cents; large roxes, containing two and one-haft times the quantity of small, 31. Resolvent, 31 per bottle. Cuticura Soap, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes, 7s cents.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothins Syrup. Rev. Sylvanus Cobb thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman-We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and the parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cher-ub awakes as "bright as a button," And during the process of teething, its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege, on any consideration whatever. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

This most excellent remedy is becoming more popular with our people every day. It is one of the few medicines that improves on acquaintance—the more one knows of it, the more its virtues are appreciated. Everybody who has given it a fair trial, speak well of it. Our druggists sell large quantities of it. People are not afraid to use a medicine that they know to be efficient for their ailments, and at the same time harmless in its nature. Read what is so aptly said of it, in another column of this paper. Truth is mighty and will prevail.
